

Catholic Education ~ “Embracing the Treasure”

The Bruce-Grey Catholic District School Board welcomes you to join us in hosting “Embracing the Treasure”

the second annual Diocesan Celebration of Catholic Education to be held on Thursday October 15, 2009, at Immaculate Conception Church in Formosa. We will come together with the other Catholic school boards within Hamilton Diocese, including the Waterloo CDSB, Halton CDSB, Hamilton-Wentworth CDSB, Wellington CDSB, Brant, Haldimand, Norfolk CDSB and the Conseil Scolaire de District Catholique Centre-Sud, to embrace the treasure of God’s loving presence in our world; the treasure of our Catholic faith; and the treasure of Catholic Education, whose mission it is to proclaim and witness to these realities to our youth.

The format of this celebration is as follows:

- 3:30pm Guest Speaker Dr. Mark McGowan ~ Immaculate Conception Church
Dr. McGowan is a renowned historian, teacher, and Principal of St. Michael’s College, University of Toronto. He is well known for his passionate commitment to our story of Catholic Education in Ontario.
- 4:45pm Nutrition Break ~ Immaculate Conception School
- 6:30 pm Eucharistic Celebration ~ Immaculate Conception Church
*The Most Reverend Anthony F. Tonnos, Bishop of Hamilton
The Most Reverend Gerard Bergie, Auxiliary Bishop of Hamilton
Priests from the Diocese*

We hope that you will be able to join us for this unique opportunity to celebrate our Treasure. If you are unable to attend the afternoon guest speaker, you are most welcome to join us at 6:30pm for this very special Eucharistic celebration.

Bruce MacPherson, Director of Education
